Good afternoon!

I am writing to express my support of the homes, townhomes and apartments that Woodhill Homes may build at Sunset Meadows. It's a well thought out plan and our city needs it desperately. The location is perfect for the schools and the proposed transit hub.

We have so many people who would like to live in Sisters, but are instead commuting from nearby communities to work retail jobs. With gas prices this high, that means their small incomes are stretched even further. Why don't we welcome them to this little paradise and have them part of the smart growth that we can create?

What right do we have to close the doors to living here, just because some people lived here first? The town will grow because people want to live here and many have sacrificed to do so. All of Central Oregon is growing; we are just a tad slower because it's so expensive to live here.

Thanks for listening.

Regards, Sally
