Dear Mr. Martin,

I have been a Sisters resident and contributor to this community for over 20 years. I am extremely concerned to hear about yet another development (see above) to possibly be added to the explosion of housing and apartment developments already completed. May I ask what your long-term goal is here? Where will all of these resident's work? Do we have the infostructure to accommodate all of these new residents? The answer is no. So how do you explain your decisions thus far?

Sisters is a "resort" town. Not everyone can live in a "resort" town. I grew up in Manhattan Beach, California. Beautiful small town. But after college I was unable to afford moving back to my roots. That is reality. Some towns are affordable, and some are not. Why change Sisters into Bend? Do you believe Bend was planned well? I do not. It breaks my heart that Sisters is following this same pattern in the name of money. As we all know, money is usually at the root of these decisions.

Please take into consideration the voices of the Sisters community who pays your salary.

Thank you for your thoughts on this important matter.

Respectfully,

Erin Bordonaro
