I have lived in Sisters for 49 years and my husband John Keenan for 37 years. John was an owner of Bronco Billy's and I own The Stitchin' Post with my daughter, Valori Wells. John and I own the Pine Tree Square commercial property and our home is just off Pine Street. We have concerns about the high density, traffic congestion on a heavily traveled road, inadequate parking, and lack of open space in the current Sunset Meadows proposal. We do not believe this plan should be approved! It certainly does not conform to the Historic Western small town lifestyle that was being developed in the 70's when I moved here. We love Sisters and our vibrant community.
